GREENSBORO, N. C., August 21.—
The locals finished the week with a record of eight victories and no defeats to-day when they overwhelmingly defeated the Spartans 11 to 0. It was a regular slugging match for the locals, they landing on Thackam for a total of fifteen hits, among which was a homer, two three-baggers and two doubles. Martin Walsh, who was secured from the Datville feam, in the Yirginia League, showed that he had raturned to his old-time form, seven well scattered hits being the result of the Spartans' efforts. During the first five innings only fifteen men faced him.

HOW THE VOTE STANDS

More than a million votes have been cast in The Times-Dispatch contest fo the most popular player in the Virginia State League, and with the average of the past week kept up, it is practikally certain that the 2,000,000 mark will be passed before the contest closes. The balloting last week was marked by the steady support given Revelle, of Richmond, who leads John Waymack, who also holds a Richmond contract by nearly 15,000 Norm Naymark, who also holds a Richmond contract, by nearly 15,000 votes. Many of the players have increased their standing during the week, and coupons have also been returned for a good many players whose names are not printed, as they have not reached the 1,000 mark. For the past few nights much aunovance has past few nights, much annoyance habeen experienced from persons sending in old ballots, and hundreds of vote in old ballots, and hundreds of votes have been thrown away on this account.

Sporting Queries

Sporting Editor.—A man stands at the bat and does not strike at the ball. The ball is wild, however. The batter dodges and the ball strikes his bat and rolls into foul territory. Is it a ball or a strike?

Manchester, Va. HUGH SAUNDERS.
It is a foul if the batter already has two strikes, otherwise it is a foul strike.

Sporting Editor.—Will you kindly answer through your sporting section who is the best pitcher, Doane or Moser? K. B. DeWitt, Va. Doane.

McCormick, of Chicago, in 1888, won twenty-four straight. This, as far as I can learn, is the record.

Sporting Editor.—A batter knocks a home run and passes outside of second base, not touching the base. He covered more territory than was necessary. The umpire perceives the omission and declares the runner out. Was the decision a corroct one.

Rooky Mount, N. C. AMATEUR.

Yes. The runner was out.

Sporting Editor, Did Brooklyn aver win the National League pennant race? STAUNTON AMATEUR. Yes, In 1899 and again in 1896.

Sporting Editor, The Times-Dispatch:
To settle a dispute please answer the following question in your issue next Sunday A man is on third base and the pitche throws the hall to the catcher, who catche it in his mitt and tags the runner with his bare hand before runner touches base. In he out??

Certainly not. If the rishere had been forced it would only have been necessar.
